ROBBERY AT FORT GRANT.

Two Masked Men Take in the Post Trader's Store.

From the Wilcox Stockman.
Last Friday night about 9 o'clock, immediately after closing the post trader's store at Fort Grant, the clerks having left, two masked men entered the office by the rear door, and held up the sole occupants, Mr. Sheen, the book-keeper, and Lieutenant Evans, with cocked six-shooters. A sack was handed Mr. Sheen, into which he was gently but firmly requested to place the cash contents of the safe, the request followed by immediate action on Mr. Sheen's part. The affair lasted but a few minutes, during which but little was said to lead to any identification. Upon leaving, the robbers commenced firing their guns, perhaps to bring terror to the hearts of would-be pursuers. The alarm was quickly given, and assistance soon came, but the robbers made good their escape in the timber close by.

The cash taken is variously estimated at from $2,000 to $5,000, the lesser amount being perhaps more nearly correct. Constable Caldwell, of this place, thinking he had a possible clue to the perpetrators, was out for a few days. He made no capture, but arranged matters which may yet terminate successfully. A reward of $500 for their capture and conviction is offered by Mr. Norton, which amount is supplemented by 15 per cent of all money recovered.

The Town of Williams.

From the Flagstaff Democrat.

There is a very discernible impetus in the business outlook of Williams since the re-location of the freight division of the Atlantic & Pacific Railroad Company at that point. The company is completing a very substantial eight-stall round-house and putting in several side-tracks, thus giving employment to a large number of hands. The business men are all in good spirits, and a marked advance in their trade has already made its appearance. There is as fine a cattle and sheep-growing country surrounding Williams as can be found in the county, while many fine agricultural ranches lie adjacent to it, and there is no obvious reason why it should not grow and prosper.
